Fangda Partners makes up 18 partners - the largest promotion ever

Fangda Partners today announced the promotion of 18 new partners, the largest ever promotion in the firm's history. Their expertise covers a broad range of practice areas, including corporate/M&A, real estate & construction, dispute resolution and antitrust. Coming against the backdrop of COVID-19 and the recent management transition, the large promotion underscores our confidence in the strength of our business, our investment in diversity, and our absolute commitment to supporting our clients. Among the 18 new partners, eight are women.

Michael Han, Chairman of the management committee, says, "I would like to congratulate our 18 new partners on behalf of our firm. The growing partnership demonstrates our resilient business capability and continuing investment in talent. 2020 is a crucial year for us as we look to build on our leading reputation in the legal marketplace. Our new partners' experience and expertise will support our rapid, sustainable development in the future. Despite the challenges and uncertainties of COVID-19, we will work ever more closely with our clients to help them succeed in their business."

Commenting on the promotion of the new partners, Gao Yang, managing partner, adds, "We are delighted to welcome these outstanding lawyers into our partnership and congratulate them on their excellent achievement in making partner. Having talented people is at the very core of Fangda's culture and values, ensuring that we create the right conditions to secure the long-term future of the firm. We feel sure that our new partners will further enhance our reputation as the leading China-based international law firm."
