Uniquely tailored for international students seeking an edge in the competitive field of international business law, our LL.M. Business Law in a Global Context offers students advanced knowledge of North American law, comparative law and international law, in addition to addressing the growing complexity of law in a globalized world. The program is conceived in such a manner as to equip participating students with significant analytical and research skills.

The following topics feature among the courses offered:

- Western Legal Systems
- Common Law Aspects of Commercial Transactions
- Business Organization and Governance
- Secured Transactions and Bankruptcy
- Intellectual and Industrial Property
- Electronic Commerce Law
- International Commercial Dispute Resolution
- Legal Aspects of International Finance
- International Tax Law for Business Lawyers
- Globalization and Emerging Economies
- International Economic Crimes
- Legal Practice in Canada

The Université de Montréal Faculty of Law stands out among other great law faculties for its unique combination of intellectual pluralism and for the groundbreaking scientific research conducted by its professors and students in all major fields of law. Montreal is the ideal city in which to study the two legal traditions of civil law and common law, and our Faculty of Law is a world leader in this field. Not to mention that Montreal counts annually among the 10 most popular student cities since 2015 (QS Best Student Cities)! Come discover, while you study in English in a French-language university, a dynamic city that combines Aboriginal, French and English history with a truly contemporary approach to international issues.

Campus life

Nature friendly campus set on Mount Royal, with more than 65 hectares of greenery, roads and paths.

Dynamic graduate law students association, active legal clinics, sports facilities and more...

Qualifications for admission

To be eligible to apply to this program, applicants must:

- Possess a law degree or an equivalent degree with high academic standing from an accredited university;
- Have a thorough knowledge of the English language;
- Meet the other admission requirements specified in the applicable academic regulations; and
- Take part in a personal interview, if necessary.

Scholarships

Only a limited number of scholarships for graduate students attending the Master of Laws (LL.M.) Business Law in a Global Context program will be offered based upon the excellence of the student's application.

Some countries or national organisations provide scholarships to their citizens, i.e. China: China Scholarship Council.

Please consult your local resources.

Other scholarships may be available at the Faculty to graduate students during the academic year.

Leonardo Daldegan Lima (Brazil) LL.M. 2010

The quality of the professors, the case studies, the reputation of the program, as well as the company of colleagues from various countries around the world, made it an extraordinary opportunity to develop my skills in the business law industry.

I do recommend this challenging program, because of its seriousness and excellence.

Dan Su (China) LL.M. 2010 / B.C.L., LL.B. 2015 Associate at Fasken

The whole experience was about challenging, fulfilling, discovering and realizing. I still remember my first day, so long ago, yet so fresh. At Université de Montréal, I found my way.
